Conceptual Design Agreement

Our initial design consultation is Complementary. During this consultation we want to discuss your goals and ideas, review potential design options, determine a realistic budget, and educate you regarding our services so you have the information you need to make the right decision. Once you decide we are the right fit for your addition project, we can begin our conceptual design process.

Volpe Enterprises, Inc's Conceptual Design Process & Fee represents payment for design services for your addition renovations. The Conceptual Design Phase for additions include 1 planning meeting with our architect, job site measure, basic conceptual floor plans and exterior elevation drawings of the space to be renovated. After this process is complete you will be presented with a retainer agreement detailing next steps and providing the opinion of probable cost. (Please refer to the Conceptual Design Agreement "Guidelines & Fee Schedule.")

When you decide to move forward with Volpe Enterprises Inc. to perform your remodel, the initial Conceptual Design fee and/or Retainer Agreement will be applied toward the purchase of our remodelling services.
